What the filings mean for the plan

1. Sun School is not a division of Block Wall Street. It is its own LLC, filed January 21, 2026, and managed by Isun Jones-Boler, not Amir. The filing does not name owners, so the operating agreement decides who owns it. Until that is known, the hub and the Orientation Guide should not say BWS "funds" or "controls" Sun School. Amir reports that Isun Jones-Boler owns Sun School. The operating agreement must confirm it.

2. A B4OF director manages Sun School. Isun Jones-Boler is both a director named in the B4OF Articles and the sole manager of Sun School LLC. On any deal between B4OF and Sun School, Isun is not an independent director and must step out of the vote. With only three directors named, B4OF needs at least one or two more independent directors before it signs any such deal.
3. Amir is a manager of BWS, but not a director of B4OF on paper. The B4OF Articles name Isun Jones-Boler, Tawanda Jennings and Samuel Harris. If Amir joins the board, he would be non-independent on BWS dealings. If he stays off the board, B4OF should not take direction from him informally, and his role (founder, advisor, staff) should be written down.
4. Address typo on the Sun School filing. The principal office says "Dolton, AL 60419". The state should be IL. Fix it with an amendment to the Articles of Organization, or with the next annual report, and ask the Secretary of State which route they accept.
5. BWS is a series LLC. Series liability protection depends on the operating agreement creating the series and a Certificate of Designation filed for each one. Confirm with an attorney whether any series exists and has been filed.
6. Annual reports. Illinois LLCs and nonprofit corporations file annual reports based on their anniversary month. Sun School and B4OF were both formed in January 2026, so both first reports fall around January 2027. BWS falls in July. Confirm the exact due dates and fees at ilsos.gov.
7. Different registered agents. BWS uses Dionadrea Buford and Sun School uses Isun Jones. Confirm both are current and that mail reaches them.

Documents to add to the hub. Neither LLC has a written operating agreement yet, so drafting both is the first to-do. Add them here once signed, along with any Certificate of Designation for BWS. Keep IRS EIN letters out of this hub.

Ownership as reported on October 22, 2026

These come from Amir, not from a signed document. Both operating agreements should confirm them.

- Block Wall Street LLC. Owned by Dionadrea Buford. Ownership is expected to pass to Tawanda Jennings, with Dionadrea staying on as a member.
- Sun School of Satoshi LLC. Owned by Isun Jones-Boler.

- Building 4 Our Future. A nonprofit has no owners. Ray Robinson is its founder, incorporator and registered agent.
- Conflicts. Isun and Tawanda are both B4OF directors with ownership ties to related companies. See Schedule A of the Conflict of Interest Policy.
